

Independent Breaks

April - October 2012

To be read together with our A4 full-colour folder, see our web site and click on 'Contact and brochure'.

These holidays can be taken at most times. You will receive a warm welcome from your hosts the Sevilmis family. They will be pleased to advise you about local transport and excursions. The price includes a substantial breakfast and dinner every day. To help you find your way around, we will supply you with local information sheets, once you have booked. There is no special activities programme. These independent breaks are ideal for couples, families, friends and individuals happy travelling on their own.
